Family Codewords

Issue 45

A warm welcome to new Family Codewords. We know how much you puzzlers love regular codewords, but we reckon that you'd also like some fun variants to make things a bit different. In these pages, you'll find Star codewords, where you have to recognise the celebrity in order to give you the starter letters, Linked up codewords, where three theme words need to be filled in, and Squared off, where you must fill in the black squares as well as the answers.

But that's not all – you'll also find Code themes, which give an encrypted version of three related words, To and fro, where four answers read backwards, and Spiral, where all the answers read in a spiral around the grid. It's the perfect mix for the code-cracking expert!

Don't forget to enter our super £2,500 cash competition – and see you next issue!

Squared off

To crack this one, you'll need to work out the letters and the black squares. Four of the numbers from 1 to 30 represent black squares, which form a diagonally symmetrical pattern. The other 26 numbers represent all the letters of the alphabet.
